Mystical Adventures!!!

Hop aboard the magical streets of Ann Arbor and go on a magical journey which will lead you through a free adventure filled with fairy doors and people watching. Catch the sights and sounds as you use your map (downloadable on numerous websites devoted to these fairy door locations). Sweetwaters Coffee & Tea, Peaceable Kingdom, Jefferson Market & Cakery, The Ark, Lakewood Elementary Kindergarten, Fairy ticket window, Found Gallery, Mott Children's Hospital, The Michigan Theater, Google Offices, Nicola's Books, Flying Pumpkin, Cottage, etc.

The Fairy doors are an adorable, free activity for people of all ages. Hunting the fairy doors is something fun to do in between shopping at all of the cool AA shops. It's also a great way to burn off calories after eating at your favorite Downtown AA restaurant. Besides burning calories, hunting Fairy Doors makes for a memorable date night with BAE. Need an excuse to go drinking with your squad? Set up a Fairy Door Bar Crawl. There are so many reasons why you should seek these doors out! Also the artwork is fun and it's definitely a nice way to get some local flavor here in Ann Arbor! Plus, each door has its own unique look! You'll be in imagination-land in no time thinking of the fun fairies. Urban Fairies Tour Map PDF Version Print Friendly

LOCATIONS

Because Urban Fairies are as fickle as any Woodland or Flower Fairies, the locations change with whims. At any given time, there may or may NOT be a door when you look. Click on any thumbnail to see and read more about the particular location.

5. Red Shoes

A Goblin Door
I do not like to reveal the location, because it does not seem wise to encourage people to be monkeying about a goblin door. It seems that a goblin or goblins have made this out of jealousy of the urban fairies. Obviously goblins because of the unseemly location (pigeon poo and cigarette butts) and tall proportions of the door.

6. Sweetwaters Coffee & Tea

7. Peaceable Kingdom

8. Found Gallery

9. UofM Mott's Children's Hospital

10. Nicola's Books

Note: Some locations are exterior, some are interior, some have BOTH exterior and interior features...or even multiple points of interest.

URBAN FAIRIES BACKGROUND

Since around 1993, fairy doors, windows, staircases and rooms have begun appearing in and around our home. In the Spring of 2005 I noted similar doors in downtown Ann Arbor. Since April of 2005 I have been keeping track of what I have discovered. I created a web-site: urban-fairies.com where I compile much of my findings.

The doors on this guide are certainly not the only doors, but the easiest to tour. Be aware that these are "fairy doors" and may or may not be there at any given time. Have fun searching & always be gentle. You will likely spot other wee doors that are not affiliated with the urban-fairies. thanks so much! ~ Jonathan b. Wright

NOT to any scale. In fact it is grossly distorted AND not every street shown.
